GENERAL NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN)

Trouble between Railroad and Express Companies

CHICAGO Aug 10 —Representatives of the Union Pacific Company, here to-day notified the American Express Company that hereafter it would not receive freight for transmission to different points along its line from the American Express Company, which reaches Omaha by the Chicago Burlington and Quincy and Chicago and Northwestern railroads This notice is considered to be a move to force all the express business for points beyond Omaha into the hands of the U S Express Company, which comes over the Chicago and Rock Island, or the Pacific Express Company, which comes by the Wabash road The latter to-day began running through trains for the west into this city The C B & Q officials are incensed at the order it is not known what action the Express Company will take.

Stolen Bonds.

NEW YORK Aug. 10 —Milo A Boynton a lawyer of Grand Haven, Mich , was arrested to-day while trying to dispose of two bonds which were stolen in the south during the war Boynton says that he received the bonds for professional services from a widow lady to whom they had been given by her brother who was with Sherman in the march to the sea

The Jersey City Horror.

JERSEY CITY, Aug 10 —In the work at the tunnel three pumps, whose combined capacity is 5900 gallons per minute, are not sufficient to reduce the water in the cofferdam At a consultation of officers and engineers in charge it was decided that the only way of reaching the bodies was by means of a caisson timber for which has been ordered and is expected to reach the ground to-day It is expected that it will take at least two weeks to construct the caisson and two weeks to reach the bodies The estimated cost of the work so far is near $30,000

A Druggist's Fatal Mistake.

LONG BRANCH Aug. 10 —The coroner's jury in the case of Catherine Monahan, who died from the effects of a dose of Magendie's solution of morphine given in mistake by a druggist, Dr. George H Van Brunt, of Seabright, for epsom salts, brought in a verdict last night that death was caused by Van Brunt's negligence, and asking that he be held for manslaughter Van Brunt was arrested

Murat Halstead thinks New York will go for Garfield.

CLEVELAND, Aug 10 —Murat Halstead, of the Cincinnati Commercial, in a speech at the Warren reception to Gen. Garfield said I have taken the liberty to say in New York that Ohio is not among the doubtful states. Gen Garfield's journey was a great success. The conference in New York was reassuring, as also the splendid demonstration along the line we have traveled, which in the political situation of the country has a most important part to bear, for on it depends the duty of overcoming the vote of the city of New York. We feel confidence in New York state

Will Sin no More.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 5.—Alphonso Klock shot Jerry Holden at Herkimer dead last night. Holden was having improper relations with Klock's sister when the deed was committed.

Congressional Nomination.

SANTA FE, Aug, 10.—The territorial democratic convention yesterday renominated Miguel Otero for delegate to congress

Railroad Earnings.

NEW YORK, Aug 10.—The Post this evening says The gross earnings of 38 railroads reporting their receipts for the month of July show a gain of about 32 per cent , the increase in mileage being about 42 per cent. During the month there were no special influences at work to unduly stimulate traffic although the grain movement continued in large volume Earnings for seven months from Jan 1st show an increase of 25 per cent, and mileage about 12 per cent The increase is uniform throughout the list, with a solitary and unimportant exception. No more conclusive proof can be furnished of the present magnitude and activity of general trade than the road receipts now published. The continued growth of railroad earnings in the new counties opened up by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and Denver & Rio Grande is shown by the receipts of the latter for the first week in August, these being about six times what they were last year, when the mileage was 337 It is now 510

A Dastardly Deed.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass, Aug. 10 —The family of Zebina Tilson, living a mile from Shutesburg Center, were alarmed last night by the appearance of Jarvy Nelson Phelps, a young man, the son of their nearest neighbor, who was bleeding from several wounds in the chest He declared that he had shot himself and had but a few moments to live and that he had left the dead body of Sadie A Grover, his former mistress and the mother of a three-year old child in the woods a short distance back. An alarm was immediately given and search proved Phelps' story to be true Phelps has a wife living. He formerly lived with the Grover girl who is scarcely nineteen, until arrested for bigamy and sent to the Greenfield jail for one year His sentence was commuted about a year ago, since which he has been endeavoring to get her to live with him again. Her continued refusal and association with other men have excited him to commit the crime He says that he fired four chambers of his revolver into the woman's heart then coolly reloaded and discharged seven barrels into his own breast An autopsy confirms his story substantially Phelps is still living, and to all appearances is the coolest man in town, but the doctors say that he cannot recover.

A Desperate Villain.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill , Aug 10 —Tom Beckett, formerly a miller of this place, shot and severely wounded two officers who attempted to arrest him this afternoon Some time recently his wife separated from him on account of his cruel treatment. Subsequently he tried to get her to return, and when she refused he seized and carried off their infant child, taking it to Quincy, where it died a few days later This morning he forcibly entered the house of his mother in-law in search of his wife but failed to find her and then after exchanging pistol shots with her brother fled He was found in a corn field and began firing on the officers A deputy sheriff was wounded in the groin and Detective Freese in the breast. Beckett was shot in the leg before being finally captured

Fire at Greenville, Pa

CLEVELAND Aug 10 —A special to the Leader says The extensive rolling mill at Greenville, Pa. owned by Kimberly, Karnes & Co , of Sharon burned at a late hour last night About 150 men are thrown out of employment.

TEN ACRES OF FLAME.

Great Lumber Fire at Hunter's Point, N. Y., Harbor—Several Vessels Burned

(SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN)

NEW YORK Aug 10 —This morning the hull of the burning vessel Nectar floated against a pier occupied by the American Export Lumber Company at Hunter's Point The premises occupied by the company reach along both sides of the new town of Creek At the time the Nectar came in contact with the pier they were unloading a large number of vessels The fire immediately communicated to the lumber yard and spread in every direction with lightning rapidity From the lumber yard the fire spread to the vessels, and notwithstanding the efforts made by several tugs which hastened to their assistance six barges, one schooner and one ship were soon in flames Over ten acres of fire is now raging widly and it appears to be beyond the control of the firemen Several burning vessels were towed into the river and have drifted with the tide toward Blackwell's Island enveloped in sheets of flame The fire is spreading in every direction and no estimate can be formed as to its probable extent The scene from the river is one of indescribable grandeur, flames rising in every direction and devouring everything in their path

The stock of the Export Lumber Company was mostly Canada pine, valued at $500 000 About half is already destroyed It is fully insured, chiefly in foreign companies Chas Watrous stock of lumber Canada pine valued at $100 000, was burned , insured The total loss is expected to be half a million

At first many people in shops about the fire began to make preparations to abandon their abodes, but after the firemen were well at work, all the lumber yard workmen, boatmen and many outsiders took hold and pile after pile of lumber was moved away with remarkable swiftness At 11 o'clock a wide open space half around the fire was cleared and drenched with water

THE BOYS IN BLUE.

Reunion of Veterans of the War at Columbus, Ohio—A Great Throng and Interesting Exercises.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 10 —The reunion opened to-day and for the next three days the city will be devoted to the reception and entertainment of veteran guests and visiting strangers An opening salute of 38 guns announced the grand event this morning Many strangers arrived in the city yesterday, but the rush commenced in earnest to-day, excursion trains arriving from all directions, containing thousands of people The streets are literally covered with masses of people Decorating continues to-day and High street never before presented such an elaborate display of bunting, flags and evergreens A conspicuous banner bears the greeting, " Welcome Comrades," and the other side, which is draped in black, "In Memory of our Dead " Rain began to fall at 1 o'clock, but soon passed over. At about 4 P M. the exercises were formally begun at the fairgrounds After prayer by Rev Wm E Moore, chaplain of the Ex Soldiers' and Sailors' Association, an address of welcome to visiting veterans and comrades was delivered by the president of the association, Adjutant General Hall, which was responded to by Governor Foster "The Regular Army" and "The Volunteers" were the subjects of addresses by Col Anderson, of Columbus barracks, and Adjutant General Gibson, respectively The proceedings were enlivened with music, and at sundown a salute of 13 guns was fired, after which reunions and association meetings were held at the camp grounds and at all the available halls in the city, which to-night are brilliantly illuminated by the electric light with a grand display of fireworks It is estimated that 15,000 people arrived at the Union depot alone The accommodations of the fairgrounds entering the city were totally inadequate to the demands of travel It is expected 20 000 more will arrive to-morrow

THE SOUND DISASTER.

An Investigating Committee Places the Blame—A Fraudulent Hero, etc., etc.

A Stern but Needed Lesson.

NEW YORK, Aug 10 —The grand jury in the United States court to-day made a presentment in the Seawanhaka disaster case. They say they believe that the accident was due to the criminal carelessness and negligence of certain government officials, and the officers and owners of the vessel. Attached were indictments against them The offense charged is manslaughter. Bench warrants of arrest have been issued Certified copies of the presentment have been forwarded to President Hayes, the heads of the senate and house of representatives attorney general and secretary of the treasury.

The grand jury presentment day reports it necessary for legislation to remedy the existing evils and correct irregularities Captain Smith received great praise from the public and commendation in the newspapers for his conduct at the time of the disaster, in remaining in the wheelhouse until the boat was beached, although the flames surrounded him and he was badly burnt. The grand jury says that by his felonious misconduct, negligence and inattention to his duties, and his failure to provide the steamer with such life saving apparatus as would best secure the safety of all on board in case of disaster, he was guilty of manslaughter Other indictments are similar in nature , all charge the indicted persons with manslaughter

STATE CONVENTIONS.

Georgia Democratic Convention.

ATLANTA, Aug 10 —The democratic state convention to-day resolved, after the 32d ballot had been taken for candidate for governor and no choice, that the convention recommend to the people Governor A H Colquitt The convention, by rising, voted a united and hearty support of the democracy of Georgia of Hancock and English

The result of the 32d was Col Quitt, 220, Lester, 58 Hardemen 46, Gartrell 15, Warner 8 The convention then, by acclamation, placed in the field an electoral ticket for president and vice president of the United States and adjourned until to-morrow.

A Little Triumph for Honesty.

NASHVILLE Tenn , Aug, 10 —In the democratic gubernatorial state convention to-day George Washington, representing the state credit democracy, was elected temporary chairman by a vote of 940 against 293 for D L Snodgrass Washington made a strong state credit speech denouncing repudiation This sentiment was received with prolonged applause Col J. Comment on the Proposed Canadian Railroad by New York Papers

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN)

NEW YORK Aug. 10 — The Tribune says The foolish and expensive political scheme of the Canadian Pacific railroad has been taken up in earnest by the new dominion ministry and the aid of English capitalists is likely to be secured. There is not the least prospect that the road will pay running expenses during the present century Most of the country it is to traverse is barren and destitute of inhabitants save a few savages. Still the Canadian government is pledged to build the line. Canadian statesmen see no way honorably to avoid carrying out the bad bargain they made when the petty colony on the Pacific joined the confederation

The Bulletin says of the route proposed by the new surveying party just started from Winnipeg to explore the Nelson river valley . The general route of the new line will be from Selkirk with headquarters of the southern terminus at Winnipeg northwesterly to Saskatchewan river above Grand Rapids , thence north along Nelson river to a point where ocean steamers connect It is difficult to understand how it can be expected to make the proposed route pay. Hudson Bay is open for navigation only two months of the year.

The "Superb Soldier" and his Opinions.

[From the New York Times.]

The "superb soldier" whom the democrats have put up for a figure head has never been accused of having any opinions on any civil topic Certainly he has none on the much vexed labor question A deputation of working men who waited upon "the superb" yesterday were referred to Mr Barnum of the democratic national committee It is not the superb soldier's fault that he has no opinions on the labor question, or any other question of present moment. If the deputation had asked the general how to set a squadron in the field, or to state the exact amount of the pay, emoluments, and commutations and allowances of a major general of the United States army, they might have gone away much wiser for their visit. But when a delegation of citizens asks the superb soldier for real opinions he obeys orders and sends them to Barnum

The Indiana Campaign.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug 1 —The Hon. Albert G. Porter returned to this city last night, after two weeks campaigning in the southern section of the state. He brings with him most flattering reports of the outlook Everywhere he was greeted by large crowds and genuine enthusiasm He reports too that organization in the various counties visited is going forward very rapidly and systematically , that the most prominent men are taking hold as they never have before and that every one is full of confidence and hope He expects large gains for the republicans in those democratic strongholds especially among the Germans They are down on Hancock claiming to have had enough and to have known enough of military commanders in the old country Mr Porter is most intensely in earnest and if he is able to hold out as he has commenced he will make a canvass equal to that of Morton in 1864

The Civil Service.

Mr Halstead of the Cincinnati Commercial, says of the part of Gen. Garfield's letter relating to the civil service

The fact that Gen Garfield has not attempted to astonish the country with the declaration of the ineffable beauties of civil service reform testifies his good sense The civil service never needed thorough cleansing more than at the close of Grant's administration and the efficacy of the doctrine of reform so far as we have seen has been to retain the worst material in place The one change that the people would relish is the change of federal officers The survival of the unfit has been the experience of the country We do not want an official class The party that proposes to establish one must die Civil service reform has made the administration powerless, and exposed the nation to the peril of boss government

THE NORTHWEST.

Western Oregon.

The race track at the fair grounds presents a lively appearance.

John Hume of Astoria killed a 900 pound elk on his trip to Saddle mountain last week

Circuit court convened in Astoria yesterday The docket contains 70 civil and 11 criminal cases

A sailor named Charles Whalby aged 30 years and a native of Finland died of consumption on board the bark Harrison G Johnson on the 7th inst , while she lay in Baker's Bay His remains were taken to Astoria and buried in the cemetery there on Monday

A large box containing sundry articles was found by a gardener while at work near Mill creek Salem, last Friday The goods are supposed to belong to Rev Mr Hill who had a number of articles stolen about fair time and are in charge of Officer Harbord, awaiting identification.

Eastern Oregon.

A large number of new buildings has been erected in the Dalles the present season Carpenters are all busy and the demand for workmen in this line of business exceeds the supply

J. W Presby, joint owner in the steam saw mill soon to be erected at the mouth of the Klickitat, while running logs down a chute about 8 miles above the mouth of that river, sustained a fracture of the leg just above the ankle

The Catholic church at the Dalles is being placed in thorough repair It is the intention of the building committee, as soon as funds can be raised to commence the erection of a new brick church building on the block fronting on Fourth street

Dalles Times The construction boarding and sleeping cars lately manufactured by the O R & N Co in this city, are now ready to be taken to their destination, and will be taken up on the line of the road to accommodate the men tracklaying during the week

Four teams loaded with immigrants passed through the Dalles on Sunday last bound for Puget Sound They are the remnants of a train of twenty two, which left Cedar county, Missouri, on the 29th of April The rest have scattered through Eastern Oregon and have permanently settled They report a vast immigration on the route

Some months ago Mr Brandt, living near Middleton, Umatilla county, died leaving his home encumbered by a mortgage Sympathetic neighbors contributed of their means and lifted this mortgage, thus giving the widow an unencumbered title to her home For this act of unsolicited generosity Mrs Brandt desires to publicly express her grateful acknowledgments to the donors.

Washington Territory.

A two-story building 21x40 intended for a hardware store, is being built at Colfax.

The contract for building the new public school house in Colfax has been let for $2154.

The assessor of Whitman county furnishes the following statistics. There are in this county 41 992 acres of deeded land In 1879 the real estate and improvements were valued at $182 989 and this year at $193,074 In 1879 the personal property was valued at $1 051-200 , this year it amounts to $1 508 29. An actual increase of real estate and improvements and personal property since the assessment of 1879 of $454,175 There are in Whitman county 35,000 head of cattle ; 11,000 horses 175 mules 72 *82 sheep and 3000 hogs

Palouse Gazette Camp Coeur d' Alene post is pleasantly located on the pine woods at the foot of Coeur d' Alene lake, with the officers' quarters several hundred yards distant from the shore facing the water and company quarters offices, hospital, etc , surrounding the large parade ground, with laundries, shops, etc still further back For excellent trout fishing this lake cannot be equaled in the Northwest Its waters are alive, so to speak, with beautiful, large and gamey trout, and a catch of from one to two dozen is not uncommon for an hour's fishing

SUPREME COURT,

SALEM Aug 9 1880

Court met at 1:30 o'clock P M., full bench being present.

On motion of W. W Thayer P P Prim, of Jacksonville, was admitted to practice

The state of Oregon ex rel James E. Mahoney resp , vs J D. McKinnon et al, app., action to prevent usurpation of office judgment of the court below affirmed Opinion by Watson, Judge.

Syllabus—1. The provision in a city charter that the board of trustees shall be judges of qualifications and election of their own members," does not oust the jurisdiction of the circuit court over usurpations of such office. It will still entertain an action under section 354 of the civil code against a person unlawfully exercising the office of trustee of such city and the provision in the city charter will be held as affording the city a preliminary or cumulative tribunal

2. A ballot written or printed on colored paper is illegal and should be rejected at any election held under the general laws of this state.

3 Where at an election held under the laws of this state two or more candidates receive the highest and an equal number of votes for the same office, neither is elected, nor can rightfully exercise the duties of such office, until the matter has been decided by lot, and he has been declared duly elected in the manner provided in the code

State of Oregon ex rel James H Mahoney resp vs. J D. McKinnon et al., app. action for contempt, judgment of the court below reversed opinion by Watson, Judge.

Syllabus—1. No error not specifically assigned in the notice of appeal will be considered, but the court will take judicial notice of the lack of jurisdiction in the court before appearing on the face of the record A statement in the notice, "that the decision and judgment are against law," is not specific under the statute and should be disregarded.

2. A counter affidavit filed in a proceeding for contempt is not a "pleading," but evidence merely, and the facts stated in it may be rebutted by other evidence without a formal replication.

3 The question upon the hearing of a rule to show cause, as well as the question on the trial of a proceeding for contempt, are those of fact merely, to be determined on all the evidence taken by the court below, and this court will not disturb such determination unless for errors of law or want of jurisdiction appearing on the transcript.

4 The judge of the circuit court in vacation has no power to hear and determine charges of contempt, for disobeying judgments or orders of the court The exclusive jurisdiction over such charges belongs to the court whose judgments or orders have been disobeyed, and can only be exercised during term

Observations on Hancock's Letter

[From the Cincinnati Gazette.]

He remarks that, "The bayonet is not a fit instrument for collecting the votes of freemen This is a great concession for a soldier whose favorite weapon is said to be the bayonet. But he does not say that the shot gun is not a fit instrument to suppress the votes of freemen. He remarks that "only by a full vote, a free ballot, and a fair count can the people rule" which is a declaration that the people do not rule in that section whose solid vote will be for him His remark that "public office is a trust not a bounty" is novel, but we suppose it excepts major generals also that the people must first make a reform of the civil service by filling the elective offices—that is to say by electing a democratic president who will turn out all officers and put in hungry democrats Growing eloquent with the stress of composition he says The war for the union was closed fifteen years ago and all classes should share alike the blessings of union " Yet the confederacy regards itself as politically intact the same as in the war

The Political Problem

(From the San Francisco Bulletin.]

The real political problem before the country is the effort on the part of the south to gain the upper hand by dividing the north To do so it has put up a union general as a bait All it needs is 47 electoral votes in the north to give it the 185 votes necessary to the election of president It is operating on the old and well-known doctrine of the despots —divide et impera If the north should fail to see the issue so presented it would certainly be lacking in intelligence There is no likely to be any attempt made at disunion if it should suffer itself to be beaten But it rebels will be at the mercy of those whom it defeated in the field It will be made to pay dearly for its audacity in preventing secession Not the least unlikely thing is that the ex confederate soldiers will be placed on the pension list

Fourteen girls students in a western college are writing a continued story which one of the country papers is publishing from week to week Each girl in turn writes a chapter Already twelve chapters have appeared and the story thus far concerns twelve splendid fellows with long wavy mustache twelve beautiful maidens with hair that reaches the ground and twelve stern fathers Six of the heroes have each a St in his name, and the other six are De somebodys

A LETTER FROM OLYMPIA

OLYMPIA W. T. Aug 1 1880

EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

[illegible] the capital must be the [illegible] for which Ponce De Leon sought in vain in the Bahamas and in Florida In 1870 the population of Olympia was 1203 In 1880 it is 1240 Had governor Newell arrived in time to be enumerated as well [illegible] it certainly would have been 1241

The results may be accounted for in a few words Ten years ago Olympia was in the direct line of travel and traffic between the Columbia river and the lower sound and British Columbia, and thus possessed of the trade of the whole country from the head of the sound to the Cowlitz divide, was upon the highway of prosperity up to about 1875, when she lost these advantages by the completion of the Northern Pacific railroad between Kalama and Tacoma

Though thus temporarily isolated by the force of circumstances her enterprising citizens have neither abandoned their hopes for the future, nor lost their grip on the present With an abiding faith in the great destiny that awaits them, they seem abundantly happy in the knowledge that it is their future, and not that of some other people—as it might have been, to live at the head of 'the finest body of water in the world '

Where a people of less self reliance would lose heart and pine for the want of some more profitable employment, the average 'old settler' is never at a loss for something to do In these piping times he pitches horse-shoes, plays pedro spins yarns and eats clams, thus passing the time too pleasantly to borrow trouble from the reflection that at the ratio of increase during the last decade it will take at least two or three hundred years for the realization of the dreams of his youth and prime In fine, such is his philosophical complacency, acquired from long experience, that he now finds his chief pleasure in delay and invariably insists on waiting to the latest possible moment for everything—for going to bed and getting up, for his breakfast, dinner and supper—and why shouldn't he be willing to wait for the natural development of the country, instead of trying to rush things with undue haste But, even in this blessed land of repose, and Paradise of dreams, we have our annoyances and troubles. We hold a general election every two years and with it comes a brief period of activity and disturbance, A new element of excitement is suddenly ejected into the public circulation, and as the question, "Who shall be our next delegate?" passes from mouth to mouth an unwonted commotion animates the scene. New figures appear like knights caparisoned for a tournament. Unsophisticated youths, who by industry might attain respectability and competence in almost any legitimate pursuit—old and staid men who have found peace, plenty and happiness by attending to their own business—seized with a sudden desire to taste the sweets of greatness, turn from the even tenor of their ways and boldly enter the lists, prepared to disembowel whoever stands between them and the object of their ambition.

And behind all these the long line of political Rip-Van Winkles, who sleep from year to year upon the moss-grown couches of their expectations, arise once more like ghosts of the past, as it were to stalk into the ring, respond to the call and again retire

Yes the pursuit of office is but a tilt—a game of chance, and yet—though all experience teaches that it is not the surest path to either fortune, honor or happiness, the vanity of human nature will disregard the suggestions of reason and men still go down the broad road in search of it

Though among those now living who, during the twenty six years of our territorial existence have received congressional honors, or been beaten for the office, perhaps not one can be named who is not considered a dead duck politically, strange enough there are scores among us who are actively courting the same fate, and hundreds who would not seriously resist, were it thrust upon them

It is considered, and perhaps upon better grounds than upon any previous occasion, that a nomination upon the republican side will be equivalent to an election this fall, and therefore, the contest between the opposing candidates promises to be warmer than usual at the primaries

The arguments put forward are of course pretty much of the old staple

The friends of the present incumbent, Mr, Brents, deem that he should be the man because his two years' experience had familiarized him with the mysteries of the place and prepared him to accomplish something for the territory the next session Because his large majority at the last election insures his success at the next. Because he is from the eastern portion of the territory, and because he is opposed to the Ferry ring

Ballard's supporters argue that Brents having done nothing during the past year, cannot be expected to accomplish anything in the future. That turn about is fair play, and it belongs to the sound this time—and of course to Mr Ballard because he lives on the sound , because he has never been to congress , because he is prosecuting attorney , because he is one of the boys

It is claimed for Mr Miner because he is a doctor , because he is from Port Townsend ; and because he would receive the support of the Ferry ring

And for J. B. Allen specially because he is from both sides of the mountains ; and because he's United States district attorney , because he does not drink beer or whisky , because he does not play pedro , because he is not a doctor etc.

But there are various other able candidates, several of whom rely upon the argument that they ought to have the place because they do not seek or want it.

In this connection I shall mention but one more name from among the many—that of my esteemed friend A S Abernethy, and I do so lest he should fall behind in the race for no other reason than that he is too modest to make his claims known to the people. In good common sense, business capacity, industry, sobriety, manners and address—the qualifications most requisite in a delegate, he has no superior, if an equal, among his rivals In addition to which he is an "old settler"—a pioneer, who has done much in rescuing this territory from the wilderness His party would honor itself by honoring him

Of course none but first class men should be sent to congress, and as with some very meritorious persons the difficulty of making their superior abilities known to the people constitutes an insuperable barrier, I have endeavored to set what has long been considered classic in substance to a familiar and popular air, so that any man with a tolerable voice may sing it , and singing it often enough, and loud enough, I think I may safely warrant that will ultimately bring him success —no matter what party he belongs to Here it is

I want to go to congress,
And with the solons stand ,
I feel it in my forehead
That I have got the sand,

There right before the speaker,
I'll rise up to rejoice,
And electrify the nation ,
With the zephyr of my voice,

It wants a man of genius ,
—Of warm and noble heart ,
It wants a man of business,
Who's up to every art

It wants a man whose bearing
bespeaks his high degree
It wants a man who's modest
And full of honesty

It wants a man whose language
Falls from his silvery tongue
As smooth as molasses
Flows from an empty bung

To sway the halls of congress
To follow as he wills
— To grant big appropriations
And pass his little bills

I feel it in my bosom
That I am such a man
And know with a can do it
If anybody can

And when I am elected
I'll stand at on the boys
And wake the halls of congress
With the zephyr of my voice.

Of the other side there is little or nothing to tell councils of the democracy are no distracted like those of their opponents by the contentions of rival candidates Under the depression of defeat the personal jealousies and strifes of former years has been so completely laid aside, that its captains and leaders to a man not only stand ready to waive their own claims and pretentions to the nomination—but, are even prepared to confer it upon their worst personal enemies And notwithstanding the odds against them who knows, as such things have been done, that they may not yet raise up some Sampson to win the victory with the jaw bone of an ass !

THE INDIAN SITUATION.

Gen Howard Interviewed—He Thinks there will be no Serious Fighting this Summer—Farrow's Scouts—Etc.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN)

LEWISTON, I T Aug 3 1880

Gen Howard arrived here last night, accompanied by Capt Sladen and Lieuts Farrow Benham and Robertson and the scouts, who immediately dashed off to Fort Lapwai.

While there is considerable restlessness among many of the Indians still the general thinks the season is too far advanced for any general outbreak among

THE WARLIKE TRIBES,

And does not apprehend any serious hostilities this summer However, there are a few specks upon the department horizon which Gen Howard is watching closely, and which may at any time develop into clouds and attain the bursting point Some of the Spokan Indians under Lot have ranches fenced off on the Spokan river and want to obtain titles to them The general has requested the interior department to set apart about 4800 acres for these 30 families and Secretary Schurz has telegraphed that he would see the land department about it Col. Watkins has promised the Indians a title to their ranches, and if red tape prevents their getting it, serious trouble may be looked for in that quarter, as Spokan Garry is anxious to

WHOOP FOR WAR,

And will have the old text of breach of faith to preach from. These Indians are said to be a rather desperate crowd, but Capt Bendire has a roving commission in that vicinity, and will keep his eye on them Eagle Eye, with a remnant of the Snake army which did such magnificent retreating in 1878, and probably some other renegades, has a lodge in the vast wilderness called the Salmon river mountains, from which he makes occasional forays on the remote ranches, and Lieut Farrow will visit his camp as an uninvited guest and dine on choice mountain mutton Around Umatilla agency there is also some

PROSPECT OF TROUBLE,

As the whites in that vicinity have very good cause to hate and distrust the Indians, and take occasion to show their sentiments whenever an opportunity offers, so there is very little love between the races Several Umatillas, who were with Lieut. Farrow last year, declined to go this year, because they apprehend trouble at the reservation during their absence. The Piutes at Fort Simcoe are also restless and discontented and threaten to make a brake for home being looked upon by the Yakimas as intruders as Capt Jack's Modocs were at Yainax by the Klamaths. Sallie Winnemucca has a commission, written on a piece of parchment as big as a saddle blanket , authorizing her to take the Piutes back to the vicinity of Camp McDermitt, and signed by Secretary Schurz. But it seems rather strange that General Howard or Agent Wilbur, who now has them in charge, never received any instructions from Washington in regard to the matter And what a farce it was for the government to pay out about $50 000 to move them away from that country eighteen months ago The general has given Sallie a situation at Vancouver as interpreter, which fact may tend to pacify the Piute royal family The general also has advices of threatened trouble in the Stein's mountain country and is taking prompt measures to still the turbulent waters

FARROW'S SCOUTS

The selection of Lieut Farrow as a leader of scouts has proved a very judicious one, as he has left no canyon unexplored to achieve success, and he has achieved it by hard work and natural adaptation to the hazardous calling of the scout. He might to-day be occupying the luxurious quarters and easy position of a ' society colonel" at Washington but like a true soldier he prefers the hardships and dangers of the field, where promotion is won by solid merit. His command consists of twenty-eight picked soldiers, most of whom are veteran Indian fighters, and all crack shots He also has thirteen Umatilla and Cayuse Indians and six Weisers. Among the former is Cut-Mouth John, an old vet who has always fought on the side of the whites, Although seventy three years old, he is still as spry as an antelope, and volunteered for this scouting expedition. He says that after the Whitman massacre he trailed to the mountains and attempted to capture some of the murderers, and the result was that he had most of his upper lip shot away. He was then plain John, and remembers that the wound hurt considerably but finds satisfaction in knowing that it added a prefix to his name by which he is easily distinguished from every other John in the country, and anybody who has ever heard his name will recognize him on sight. He fought under Sheridan at the Cascade block-house and also under Steptoe and Wright and helped to whoop up the Snakes in '78 and run them out of Umatilla county.

THE SIX WEISERS

Along were on the war-path in '78, and after the campaign took refuge in the Salmon river mountains where they were captured by Lieut Farrow last year Among them is Chuck and War-Jack, the former served as scout under Howard in the Nez Perce campaign and did good service. Under the circumstances it may be rather a risky experiment to put carbines in their hands, but they will be invaluable as guides in the Salmon river mountains, and if there should be any indication of treachery on their part, there may be some dead Weisers in the vicinity shortly after.

PLAN OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Lieut Farrow, with his 50 scouts will leave Fort Lapwai August 4th, for the Salmon river mountains going via Mt Idaho and Camp Howard. After soaking out the Snakes he will scout the most exposed parts of the department, suddenly dropping down with his flying column upon the points where there is a possibility of Indian troubles, and according to his present plan of campaign he has over 1500 miles to travel on this scout. White Bird and some of his Nez Perces are supposed to be up in the Cour d'Alene mountains, and there is some prospect of the scouts having a brush with his outfit R

SECTIONALISM

I have no hesitation David Davis declares in supporting Hancock for the best of all reasons namely that his election will put an end to sectional strife and sectional parties and will revive patriotic sentiments all over the land. A similar idea in one form and another is repeated by large numbers of politicians who seem to think it plausible and extremely effective. But in reality it is as unsound and trifling as they appear to suppose it convincing. Why have we sectional strife? The south causes it by organizing fifteen states as a solid political body and by suppressing all opposition on the Yazoo plan. For twenty five years, with the exception of a short interval just after the war when the southern spirit of arrogance was temporarily subdued, no opposition to the democratic party has been allowed to organize or exist in that section of the union, and it is just so now. This is the source of all the sectional strife through which the country has passed. It is the creative cause of the problems of sectional strife which still beset the country. Abatement of sectional strife is only to be had through dissolution of the solid south. This is a condition precedent to organization of parties on other than sectional lines. Given free speech, a fair ballot and a fair count in the south, there would quickly be an end of sectional politics, and in no other way can that result be reached. The proposition that we shall depend on putting an end to sectional strife by a surrender to the methods and schemes of sectional politics is precisely as if we were asked to keep the peace by yielding without objection to the demands of the highwayman. When the south was solid for the propagation of slavery twenty years ago we were told that it was our duty to allow that section to elect the president and control the policy of the country in order to prevent sectional strife and avert the deplorable results sure to follow unless this were conceded. So now the argument is in substance that we cannot have reconciliation and peace except on the basis of sectional harmony; in other words that the section which rebelled against the result of an election twenty years ago can now be reconciled only by abdication on the part of the other and greater section of its right to vote for president according to its choice. This is the old story. It assumes that in order to avoid sectional strife we must yield to the section which has organized the strife and maintains it all it demands. But look a little further. If you yield to this specious and hollow plea, you grant the success of the very object for which this sectional effort was made; and what right have you to suppose that power once gained by this sectional organization and effort will be relinquished willingly? Or to put it differently, why should it be imagined that the same sectional effort will not be made to hold power that was put forth to gain it? Why then should it be supposed that sectional strife will end, that the solid south will dissolve, if power be placed in its hands? It will remain solid simply to hold power, and therefore instead of ending sectional strife the success of sectionalism will only make its continuance sure. We need not imagine that a party achieving success through sectional effort will allow sectional politics to subside. Desiring to maintain its hold on power, the solid south will come up every time with its sectional vote. If it prevails once by such a method it will know how to prevail again, it will keep power by the means employed to gain it. Note these words applied to the usurper in King John:

> A scepter snatched with an unruly hand
> Must be as boisterously maintained as gained.

This will be the maxim of southern sectionalism in case the present effort obtains success. Instead of dissolving the solid south such success will only maintain and perpetuate it. Therefore the way to have an end of sectional strife is to defeat now once for all, this scheme of sectional effort which now confessedly is making its final attempt—an attempt beyond all question the final one if it fails in this supreme endeavor, but not the final one if it gains the prize it has sought so long.

WHY TRY A DOUBTFUL VENTURE?

"It is the first time since 1860 that we have not blundered," is the expression of a class of democrats in relation to the nomination of Gen Hancock. And yet it has been well remarked that the nomination may be a blunder for all that. If we except Gen McClellan this is the only time the democratic party has taken as a candidate a purely military man, destitute of all experience of the conduct of civil affairs, knowing only the atmosphere and the maxims of the barracks and guard room. Thus, as the Penn Monthly truly declares, it has been a traditional maxim with the party to distrust the merely military class of public men, and to insist that men of purely political experience are needed for political office. It did no violate that maxim in selecting General Jackson for the presidency, for Jackson had had such experience. The whigs violated it in nominating Harrison and Taylor who were elected on their military record, and who proved, or would have proved quite incompetent for the office. General Hancock has been in the army all his life. He has never filled any but military positions. He knows no more of the conduct of political affairs than he has learned from the newspapers. His elevation to the presidency would be like nothing so much as the old English fashion of detailing a general to take command of the fleet. He would be, even more than Gen. Grant was, at the mercy of political experts who would gather around him when once in office. If he chose to act independently of their guidance no one could foretell what he might do, for the convention itself knew his views on hardly any great question of national policy. He might prove as mischievous as Andrew Johnson was. If he be elected to accept their leading, then they and not he would control the presidential authority. This view has been stated with great clearness and force in the speeches of Secretary Schurz. With Hancock in the presidency we should have the certainty that not he but the men of the party who have made the record that condemns it, were managing the office. Hence Hancock is but the cover under which a party that the country has steadily rejected for twenty years because it couldn't trust it, would attain to power. The contrast between the two candidates in this respect is most remarkable. Gen Garfield is not a professional soldier, although he served usefully and creditably and rose to a distinguished position. From military duties he was called back to political life by the most intelligent and exacting of all the western constituencies—the western reserve of Ohio. For sixteen years he has filled to their great satisfaction the seat so long held by Joshua R. Giddings. Although he entered the house with but little other prestige than that derived from his constituency he worked his way to the front, without stooping to any of the arts of parliamentary management. From the house his state has sent him to the senate after long experience of his quality. He knows Washington and the manner of political life there as thoroughly as any man can know them and remain uncorrupted by them. James A. Garfield is the type of man whom democratic traditions would designate as fitted for the presidency. He and not Winfield S. Hancock. This is beginning to appear from the evident fact that Hancock has no growing strength as a candidate. As an unexpected thing, a sort of novelty it at [illegible] becomes apparent that it is gaining nothing in the second thoughts and sober judgment of the country. A recent cartoon which represents him as applying for a situation at the white house hits off well the tendency of public strength. With him is one representing the political desperado of the south and another representing the Tammany gang of New York. The applicant is informed by the mistress of the mansion that though he himself presents an appearance to which little exception can be taken, yet to say the truth she doesn't like the looks of the gentleman with him, and therefore he is turned away. This is full of meaning which has weight with great numbers who will deposit their ballots in November under a conviction that it is just as well to beware of any doubtful political overture of such magnitude.

Gen Chas H Grosvenor of Ohio who was at Garfield's home when a letter arrived from Mr Blaine says of it: "I don't believe one American ever wrote a stronger letter to another than Blaine to Garfield, and I don't remember ever to have heard a letter passing between public men which so impressed me with the greatness of the writer. It affected every one who heard it, and will be prized by General Garfield no doubt as one of the most precious mementoes that will come to him in his remarkable struggle. From first to last the letter showed how earnestly Blaine was ready to labor for the success of the republican candidate. It was the noblest, most manly, courageous, and whole souled presentation of the position of Mr Blaine that could have been possibly put into English language. If all of Blaine's friends could read that letter it would not only increase their admiration for the man, but give them new spirit for the contest."

The letter of candidate English is treated by the Philadelphia Times as almost ridiculous, and absurd. The New York Sun treats it with silent contempt. The Sun says of Hancock's letter, that it is "as elastic as India rubber and as sweet as honey," and other ways shows contempt for it. The sarcasm of the Sun is shown when it says "We suppose Mr Tilden would not write a letter for any one but himself." The Times says: "Not a practical idea mars the sweet inanity of the letter, and it must be Hancock's own. A useful literary friend may have helped to smooth the literary periods that flow so softly, but no practical politician had sight of this precious puerility." The Herald says: "When we see how effectively a short epistle enables a gentleman not to say much, it affords occasion for surprise that gentlemen should ever be long-winded in communications of this nature."

A flattering report of progress on the O R & N Co's railway work is reported in our columns to-day. It is a thing worth noting by the people of Portland, as well as by those along the lines of these rapidly extending roads, that the track between Celilo and Wallula will all be laid by the 15th of October, and that by Christmas there will be a continuous line from the Dalles to Grange City on Snake river, and perhaps to Union Flat thirty three miles beyond that stream. We may add that the Northern Pacific connection from Wallula to Spokan Falls is also expected to be made by that time. The foundation is being laid in the country east of the Cascades for a development that will be simply immense. There is good reason to hope that the energy of the O R & N Co will give Union and Baker counties a connection within another year.

As yet all efforts to harmonize the democratic factions in Virginia have failed of success, and the breach seems to be getting wider. The situation begins to be an alarming one to the democratic managers, who have fears that the electoral vote of Virginia may be lost. Politicians from other states have been trying to accommodate the quarrel, but in vain. Wade Hampton has been making special efforts, appealing to the democrats of the state to think what Lee and Stonewall Jackson would do if alive, and beseeching them "not to allow local strife to sacrifice principles for which they fought." Appeals on this ground may be suggestive to people in the north as well as to the confederates of Virginia.

Count Schouvaloff recently in one night won from his cousin Prince Demidoff $3,000,000. But Count Louis Melikoff thought proper to lay a statement of the affair before the czar, and that monarch thereupon sent for the lucky Count Schouvaloff and ordered him to return to Prince Demidoff seven-eighths of the sum won from him. The command was necessarily obeyed, and the loss of the prince was consequently reduced to something under four hundred thousand dollars.

At the conference of republicans at New York the other day Senator Blaine remarked that the democratic candidate was the only conspicuous union soldier he had yet heard of who seemed to be ashamed of his success in the war. This fact, he said, the tone and matter of Hancock's letter plainly showed. Any examination of the letter will certainly bear out that judgment.

The population of Colorado as shown by revised census returns is 195,163. It was 39,864 in 1870. In ten years, therefore it has quintupled. Colorado's population now surpasses Oregon's by 20,000. So much for her eastern railway connections.

Harper's Weekly makes a good point in a cartoon representing the rapid reduction of the public debt and Miss Columbia inquiring of the bystanders "Which party will you trust—the one that made the debt or the one that has thus far paid it?"

The St Louis Globe-Democrat says the soldier vote in Indiana and Illinois is as solid for Garfield as the soldier vote in Louisiana and Mississippi is for Hancock. And there is a good deal of difference between the two kinds of soldier.

The old party of blubber and bluster who buckles under his girdle the entire independent party in this contest—David Davis—vouches for Hancock. But who will vouch for David Davis?

The assessment of San Francisco just completed foots up $164,939,004 in real estate and $87,895,000 in personal property. The aggregate is $252,835,004.

Proposals for Wagons and Harness for the U. S. Army.

DEPOT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal, Aug 2 1880

SEALED PROPOSALS in triplicate subject to the usual conditions will be received at this office until 12 o'clock noon, September 2 1880, at which time and place they will be opened in the presence of bidders, for furnishing and delivery at this Depot twenty (20) six mule Army Wagons, six (6) Spring Wagons (Daugherty pattern), twenty five (25) sets six mule Army Wagon Harness complete, twenty-five (25) sets four mule Ambulance Harness complete, and fifty (50) sets Cart Harness.

Bidders will state in what quantities they will make deliveries and how soon they will commence and complete delivery of entire lot bid for. The Wagons and Harness must be in exact accordance with specifications and standard prescribed therefor (except that Wheels of the Archibald Wheel Company may be used on the Spring Wagons in lieu of the kind mentioned in specifications) of first class material and workmanship, and will be subjected to a rigid inspection before acceptance and all found not up to the required standard will be rejected and must be removed at contractor's expense within ten days after notice of such rejection.

Bidders will state the price at which they will furnish the Spring Wagons both with the wheels prescribed by the specifications and with the wheels of the Archibald Wheel Company.

Proposals will be received for a less quantity than herein mentioned.

The Government reserves the right to reject any or all proposals. A preference will be given to articles of domestic production and manufacture, conditions of price and quality being equal and such preference will be given to articles of American production and manufacture produced on the Pacific coast.

Blank proposals and printed specifications as well as any further information will be furnished by the undersigned on application.

Proposals should be addressed to the undersigned and be endorsed "Proposals for Wagons (or Harness or both as the case may be)."

OFFICE OF THE

PACIFIC MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, July 1st, 1880

To all Desirous of Securing the Benefits of Life Insurance:

The first consideration with applicants for life insurance is, or at least should be SAFETY. Will the Money Paid out for the Policy be Prudently Invested? Are the Affairs of the Company Honestly and Efficiently Administered? When the Policy Becomes a Claim, will it be Promptly Paid, and thus the object which induced the payment of the premiums be fully attained? These are queries naturally suggested, and the character of the answers determines the course of the questioner and the selection of his Company.

In this connection, the Managers of the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY respectfully beg leave to submit the following facts and statements concerning their Company:

1. Since its organization A D 1868, it has paid 3[illegible] death losses on policies amounting in the aggregate to $90[illegible] 975

2. It has Paid to Policy Holders, for Matured Endowments, Dividends, and Surrender Values, in Round Numbers, $1,000,000.

3. Its losses have been paid Promptly and without Litigation. No judgment arising from a Policy claim has ever been rendered against it and it has no suits of this character pending.

4. It has repeatedly been examined by Sworn Experts, and most thorough and searching investigations made of its condition and business, and IN EVERY CASE its Solvency and Trustworthiness have been Demonstrated.

Its Stockholders and Directors are widely known as among the most capable business men and ablest financiers of the State of California, and the integrity of their management is unquestioned.

The laws of the State including the constitutional provisions affecting corporations, are of the most rigid character, such as to make the Company one of the safest institutions of its kind.

Section 3 of Article XII of the NEW CONSTITUTION of the state of California, is as follows:

SEC 3. Each stockholder of a corporation or joint stock association shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred during the time he was a stockholder as the amount of stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole of the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation or association. The Directors or Trustees of corporations and joint stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint stock association during the term of office of such Director or Trustee.

Its policy contracts contain no restrictions upon residence or travel, and its forms of insurance are unusually attractive. The Low Rate Deposit Endowment and Mutual Investment Policies are peculiar to this Company, and offer advantages to the insured which are not surpassed if equaled by those of any other Company.

When desired, Policies can be registered by the Insurance Commissioners of California on the payment of a moderate fee, and a policy holder in the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of California has then the absolute guarantee of the State of California that the money held by this Company against the contingency of his death is secured by bonds and mortgages deposited in the State Treasury. With December 31st 18[illegible] the Company closed its eleventh year, and in so doing affords the only [illegible] record in which a life insurance company in the eleventh year of its existence was enabled to pay its death losses from interest receipts, not only was this done but in addition thereto a considerable surplus remained.

Believing ourselves entitled to the confidence and business of such as propose effecting insurance upon human life, we solicit the patronage [illegible] and pledge ourselves to discharge to the best of our ability the important and sacred trust devolved upon us.

WEDNESDAY, MORNING, AUG. 11, 1880.

EAST PORTLAND ROUTES.—Henry Warren has charge of the routes of THE OREGONIAN in East Portland, and will make all collections for subscriptions there.

CITY.

MECHANICS' FAIR MATTERS.—Messrs. Frank Dekum, president, and E Oldendorf, superintendent of the Portland Mechanics' Fair, leave on the State of California this morning and will remain in San Francisco for several days attending the mechanics' fair in that city. They will adopt such plans for the fair here as they think will add to its interest. The additions to the pavilion are rapidly approaching completion. The floral department, which is being laid out under the direction of a skillful gardener, will be a most delightful resort with its fountain, beds of flowers, grottos and rustic chairs. The machinery and agricultural departments will not be the least attractive feature of this year's exhibition. Many applications for space have already been made to the secretary, and additional applications are coming in daily. The indications now are that the fair will in every respect surpass that of last year.

THE A. O. U. W.—The picnic given by the different lodges of the Ancient Order of United Workmen at Vancouver yesterday was largely attended and was in every respect enjoyable. The City of Salem left the city at half-past nine loaded to the guards with a happy crowd, and arrived at Vancouver at 11 o'clock. The excursionists then proceeded to the city park, where, after music by the band, Grand Master Frank G. Abell delivered an address. This was followed by a splendid recitation from Miss Lolla O'Connor. H. Y. Thompson then delivered an oration, after which the crowd indulged in lunch from well-filled baskets. In the afternoon there was a match game of base ball between picked nines, and some glass ball shooting. The steamer returned to this city at 5 P. M., and left for Vancouver again at 7, carrying another large crowd.

TILLAMOOK ROCK LIGHTHOUSE.—Work on the lighthouse at Tillamook rock is advanced beyond the most sanguine expectation. Except the tragic death of John Trewavis last winter, not the slightest accident has occurred, and not a dollar's worth of material has been lost. Seven courses of masonry are now laid, which reach to the first landing of the iron work. The masonry is said to be the handsomest on the northwest coast. The lenses are now en route from New York, and the lanterns and staircase will be completed in San Francisco by the 1st of September. The roof will be completed by October 1st. Col. Gillespie is as yet unable to state whether the light will be established this winter or not, but the fog signal will be erected and in working order by December 1st.

DEATH OF MAJ. TOWLER.—Yesterday a telegram was received in this city from Fort Whipple, Arizona, announcing the death of Maj. R. H. Towler at that post. Some five years ago, Maj. Towler was appointed a paymaster in the United States army. He resided in Portland until about two years since, when he was ordered to report at Prescott. Since that time, Maj Towler has been connected with the department of Arizona. Maj. Towler first came to Portland in 1870. For several years he acted as private secretary for Ben Holladay. Deceased was a brother-in-law of Ben Holladay, of Washington City, and Mr. Sam. M. Smith, of Portland. He was about forty years of age, and a native of New York.

NEW MUSIC.—We acknowledge receipt of four splendid compositions from Bartsch's music store, just issued: "The Little Mountain Maid" is of the Arthur Sullivan school of ballads—prettily constructed on a very bright subject; price 50c. "Del Monte Waltzes" by Redding, who has considerable originality of ideas and nice perception of the rythm of a waltz; price 50 cents. "New Caprice" (second) a beautiful composition by the celebrated pianist Henry Kettan; price 75 cents. "Dreamland Waltzes," the great success in London; has a beautiful, slow glide movement.

SCRAPING THE BAR.—A force of men under the direction of Col. G. L. Gillespie, will commence this morning the work of scraping Columbia bar about the center of the middle sands, which seems now to be the weakest point. They have chartered a tug, on which the government scraper has been fitted, and have been ordered to use all diligence in the work while tides and weather permit. The scraper has been enlarged to double its former capacity. As soon as a channel is made, and that desirable result is confidently expected, Col. Gillespie will order it properly buoyed.

LEG BROKEN.—About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, while Thomas Juoy, an "off bearer" at Jones' saw-mill on the macadam road, was in the discharge of his duty, his right leg caught under the carriage and was crushed, breaking both bones a short distance above the ankle. Doctors Plummer and Blaney were summoned by telephone, and finding the injury quite serious, dressed the member and removed him to St. Vincent's hospital. He will doubtless recover with a good limb, but will be laid up for several weeks at best.

ELECTION.—At a recent election held by Verein Eintracht the following officers were chosen: President, C. B. Dunkoop; vice president, John Leek; recording and corresponding secretary, H. Orthmann; financial secretary, F. Windelar; treasurer, W. Lindemann; requisiteur, L. Schmidt; librarian, Dr. F. A. Meyer; visiting committee for sick members, U. Zeitfuchs, C. Kohler, P. Reichard; trustees for term one year, J. Wagner, C. Reigelmann, Chas. Bartel.

NEAR THE POOR FARM.—The fire which has been raging in the timber southwest of the city for several days past, has made things very lively at the Poor farm. Ever since Sunday the fire has been burning in the woods near the Poor farm, and Mr. Cleghorn, the superintendent, assisted by five or six men, have been engaged in fighting the fire away from the fences. As yet there has been no damage to fencing or buildings.

IMPROVEMENT OF CLAY STREET.—City Surveyor Chapman yesterday filed in the city auditor's office estimates for the improvement of Clay street, from the west line of Eighth street to the west line of Fifteenth street. The work calls for 17,406 cubic yards of excavation, 4230 yards embankment, 3481 lineal feet sidewalk, 668 feet crosswalk and 104 feet box gutter. The improvement will cost nearly $4000.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—The election for chief and assistant engineers of the Astoria fire department was held Monday and resulted as follows: For chief, A. W. Berry, 57, C. H. Stockton, 45. For assistant engineers: E. P. Parker, 98; L. W. Poole, 51; William Bock, 45. Mr. Berry is therefore duly elected chief engineer, E. P. Parker first and L. W. Poole second assistants for the ensuing year.

LAYING THE CORNER STONE.—The ceremonies of laying the corner stone for the new St. Stephen's chapel at the corner of Fourth and Madison streets were held last evening at 6 o'clock. Bishop Morris conducted the ceremonies which were very interesting. A number of the Episcopal clergy was present participating in the services, and also many spectators.

TAKEN ILL.—A correspondent, writing from Ilwaco, sends the following: "Captain M. C. Wilkinson, while bathing in the surf on the 'weather side' of Ilwaco, Thursday last, was taken with violent cramps. He is all right now, but was dangerously ill for a while."

UNDER BONDS.—Theodore and Charles Johnson who were arrested on complaint of John Moon, charged with having made threats to kill the complainant, were brought before Justice R. E. Bybee yesterday. They were each held to keep the peace in $300.

OREGONIAN HUMANE SOCIETY.—The roll book of the Oregon Humane Society is now open at the office of the secretary, W. T. Shanahan, Morrison street. Members, and all desiring to connect themselves with the society, will please call and sign the roll.

LARGE BOILER.—An immense boiler for the narrow gauge company was discharged from the bark Kirk yesterday. It will be forwarded to the Upper Willamette river for the company's use.

THE FIRST WALLA WALLA WHEAT.—The first shipment of wheat from the Walla Walla valley for the season of 1880-1, seventy tons, left Walla Walla yesterday morning.

NEW BOOKS.—J. K. Gill & Co., received per steamer 21 cases school and miscellaneous books. An immense stock is now arriving for the fall trade.

YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB.

At the meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club, held last evening, after the meeting had been called to order by J. M. Bower, president of the club and the transaction of routine business, Col. R. B. Curry, of Canyon City, republican candidate for presidential elector, was introduced to the assembled audience, which comfortably filled the hall. Col. Curry spoke for about an hour to a very attentive audience, who were well rewarded for their attendance, as Col. Curry sustained his well earned reputation as a speaker, demonstrating the necessity of a republican victory to the continued prosperity which the country had attained under republican auspices.

At the close of Col. Curry's speech, the president introduced Mr Tanner, saying although young in his chosen profession, he had met the older members of the bar, who had to recognize in him a foeman worthy of their steel, and that this evening would compel the same recognition of Mr. Tanner's ability as a political speaker as that he had already received as a lawyer. In a short address Mr. Tanner well fulfilled this promise.

The following standing committees of the club were appointed:

Finance—James McCraken, D. P. Thompson, Sol. Hirsch, H. Y. Thompson, F. E Beach.

Music—B. B. Tuttle, George H. Bonney, E. C. Wheeler.

Canvassing—N. J. Levison, G. H. Bonney, F. J. Miller, A. H. Butterfield, C. H. Jewett, O. F. Paxton, Sol. Shipur, G. F. Dorrance, F. E. Beach, A. H. Tanner, B. B. Tuttle, John F. Kelly, J. R. Stoddard, F. D. Haenger, J. E. Sissons.

PERSONAL.

Passed Carlin yesterday—Max Goldsmith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Megler of Brookfield, W. T., are at the Esmond.

Hon. Wm. Lane Booker, her Britannic majesty's counsel at San Francisco, and president of the British Benevolent Society of that city, returned last evening from a tour through Eastern Oregon, and leaves this morning for a trip up the Willamette valley. Mr. Booker is general agent for the Imperial, London, Northern and Queen Insurance Companies of England, and looks after their interests on the trip.

The many friends of Miss Lizzie J. Goudy who, five years ago, took leave of them for a final course of studies at Vassar college, will be pleased to learn that for the last six weeks she has been enjoying a reunion with her mother and relatives in this city after so long an absence. She will be a passenger on the outgoing steamer to day, returning to the east, where she will resume her position as teacher in one of the public schools of the city of Chicago, where she has been reappointed. While in Portland, by invitation of Professors I. W. Pratt and T. H. Crawford, she visited three of the principal public school buildings of this city, and was exceedingly gratified to see, in the far northwest, so much taste displayed in finish and arrangement of the interior as well as exterior, comparing favorably, if not excelling, any of the modern styles now in use in Chicago.

DISTRIBUTION OF SCHOOL FUND.

From Mr. I. Allen Macrum county school superintendent of Multnomah, the following figures have been obtained. The subjoined table will show the distribution of the state school fund, made August 9, 1880. The total number of pupils is 6952, the amount to be distributed $5366 94, and the rate per pupil 77 cents and two mills:

PUSHING THE RAILROADS.

THE O. R. & N. CO'S LINE FROM WALLA WALLA TO GRANGE CITY.

Track Laying begun Yesterday from Wallula to Umatilla—The Track from Celilo to Wallula to be Finished by Oct 15th.

The Oregon Railway and Navigation Co., in order to have every facility for moving the crop of wheat of Eastern Oregon and Washington territory without delay, have commenced a series of railroad works which will enable them to avoid the more difficult rapids in the Columbia and Snake rivers. Track laying was begun yesterday from Wallula to Umatilla. The iron will be laid narrow gauge to correspond with the track of the Columbia river and Walla Walla railroad, and barring unlooked for accidents cars will be running from Walla Walla to Umatilla by the 25th instant. With this track finished, boats will not be required to run to Wallula, and the Umatilla, the most difficult rapids between Celilo and Wallula, will be avoided. Trains will land at the Umatilla wharf boat. Boats will make a round trip from Celilo to Umatilla in one day, thus doubling the present transportation facilities. Trains from Walla Walla will not run to Wallula, but will cross the Walla Walla river on the new bridge about half a mile east of the latter place.

Work on grading a standard gauge railroad from Walla Walla to Grange City, on the southern shore of Snake river, about forty miles, was commenced at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, Frank J. Parker, of the Statesman, turning the first sod. The entire force employed on the Celilo and Wallula division will be put on this work, and it is confidently expected that the forty miles will be completed and trains running by Dec. 1st. This branch will give through rail communication from the uppermost rapids of Snake river to Umatilla and furnish transportation for at least ten months of the year for the country tributary to Snake river between Grange City and Lewiston, which heretofore, on account of the difficulties to navigation, has been isolated, so to speak, nearly half the time.

Work on improving the channel at Texas rapids by blasting will be commenced as soon as the water shall have sufficiently receded. $12,000 of last year's governmental appropriation for this work remains unexpended, and that, with this year's appropriation of $15,000, will enable the engineers to cut a channel navigable for loaded boats the year round. The construction of the railroad from Walla Walla to Grange City will render the expenditure of any part of the appropriation on rapids in the Snake below Grange City unnecessary.

Track laying will be commenced at Celilo and continued eastward as soon as the cargoes of the three vessels mentioned in yesterday's OREGONIAN shall have been discharged and taken to Celilo. The ships have enough iron for the track to Umatilla, and when that point is reached the narrow gauge road, commenced yesterday, will be changed to standard as far as the Walla Walla river. The track laying will, in all probability, be finished by the middle of October.

Preparations have been made during the summer to change the gauge of the Walla Walla Railroad to standard width, and this will be done before winter. It is safe to say that the O. R. & N. Co. will be carrying freight without break of bulk and passengers without change of cars from The Dalles to Grange City and vice versa before Jan. 1, 1881.

LEGAL AND COMMERCIAL UNION MERCANTILE AGENCY.

We have used your Commercial Agency, also others, and take pleasure in saying we like yours as well as any we have tried, and think it equally as good as those which cost more money.

NORDYKE & MARMON CO., Detroit.

Your Agency is of great benefit to us in obtaining the standing of men at the time we wish to deal with them. We like it better than any Agency we ever belonged to.

W. N. FLINT & Co., Wholesale Granite Dealers, Monson, Mass.

Your Agency is certainly one of the best mediums for collecting in the country. We have tried them all and pronounce yours the best.

J. M. FAHNESTOCK & Co., Wholesale Soap Dealers, Pittsburg.

One of the strongest points in favor of this Agency, is, that our list of correspondents is composed of reliable lawyers who are under a contract. They are not a secret list, and our business is transacted openly and above board. We do not overestimate a friend, or to vent some petty malice underestimate others.

Thirty thousand business men use this Agency. We invite criticism and challenge comparison, and are in the field to stay.

GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER.

It is natural for people suffering with Dyspepsia and Fever Complaint or any derangement of the digestive organs, such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, palpitation of the Heart, Heart-burn, Water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue, and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc., to put off from day to day buying an article that they know has cured their neighbor, friend, or relative, yet they have no faith in it until it is too late. But if you will go to your druggist and get a bottle of Green's August Flower your immediate cure is as certain as you live. Sample Bottles of this medicine can be obtained for 10 cents to try its superior virtues. Regular size 75 cents. Try it, two doses will relieve any case.

NEWS NOTES FROM EUGENE.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

EUGENE CITY, Aug. 10

The rush for the mountains continues, and our town wears a deserted appearance.

It is reported that the Presbyterians of this place are about to build a new church at a cost of $3000.

The Methodist church of this place has been painted inside and out preparatory to the meeting of the M. E. conference.

Harvesting of grain keeps our farmers very busy at present. As far as we can learn the yield of fall sown grain is very good. The only mishap as yet in this county is a runaway and the demolition of a self binder.

Cupid is doing some good work of late, sparing neither old nor young. We have had four weddings within so many weeks among our citizens, something unusual for this place.

Eugene has two political clubs, which have regular meetings and speeches. The Garfield and Arthur club were favored on Saturday last with a stirring address from Gen. E. L. Applegate. The Eugene Band furnished music. It was the most enthusiastic meeting yet held in this city during the campaign.

Our county jail has two inmates, one for housebreaking and the other, just recaptured, having a short time ago broke jail. It is a long time these unfortunate men have to wait for a trial, and we cannot refrain from expressing our sympathy for any person that is compelled to linger so long in such a jail as our county possesses. It is a small building illy arranged for ventilation or light, and in the warm season is almost suffocating. There is no yard that a prisoner can take exercise in, and as it is now arranged affords every facility for hoodlums to furnish the inmates with tools to work themselves out. Our county is not by any means poor, and it is hard to understand why the commissioners do not build a good, substantial stone wall and enclose the jail so as to afford better protection, and a yard where the prisoners can occasionally take a little open air exercise.

All who suffer from coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup whooping cough, and the most to be dreaded of all, Consumption, can find sure relief in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which cures when other remedies fail.

AS A GENERAL THING

Ladies who make any pretentions to refinement desire soft, white hands. We believe there is nothing will tend more to produce this effect than the constant use of Murray & Lanman's Florida Water mixed with the water in the basin. It removes redness and roughness. The ladies of Cuba and South America were the first to discover the extraordinary virtues of this floral water as a cosmetic, and have long since discarded the use of all others.

No Deception Used.

It is strange so many people will continue to suffer day after day with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sour Stomach, General Debility, when they can procure at our store SHILOH'S VITALIZER, free of cost if it does not cure or relieve them. Price 75. Sold by S. G. Skidmore & Co. 151 First street Portland, Oregon.

Various Causes—

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light and red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action, and removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak or sickly hair, to which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye and will not soil or color white cambric, yet it lasts long on the hair and keeps it fresh and vigorous. For sale by all dealers. TRIFLES LIGHT AS AIR.

HOW A YANKEE GIRL APPEARS TO FRENCH EYES.

Here is a pen and ink sketch of an American girl, which is interesting as showing how a Yankee girl seems to French eyes: "Stylish to the backbone. Independent as independent can be, but very pure. Is devoted to pleasure, dress, spending money, shows her moral nature nude, just as it is, so as to deceive nobody. Flirts all winter with this or that one and dismisses him in the spring, when she instantly catches another. Goes out alone. Travels alone. When the fancy strikes her she travels with a gentleman friend or walks anywhere with him, puts boundless confidence in him: conjugal intimacy seems to exist between them. She lets him tell what he feels, talk of love from morning till night, but she never gives him permission to kiss so much as her hand. He may say anything; he shall do nothing. She is restless, she gives heart and soul to amusement before she marries. After marriage she is a mother annually, is alone all day, hears all night nothing except discussion about patent machinery, unexplosive petroleum, chemical manures. She then will let her daughters enjoy the liberty she used without grave abuse. As nothing ever once happened to her, should Fanny, Mary, Jenny be less strong and less adroit than their mother? She originates French fashions. Parisian women detest her. Provincial women despise her. Men of all countries adore her, but will not marry her unless she has an immense fortune. Her hair is vermilion, paler than golden hair, her black eyes are bold and frank, she has a patent shape which 'tis forbidden to counterfeit, spreads herself in a carriage as if she were in a hammock, the natural and thoughtless posture of her passion for luxurious ease. When she walks she moves briskly and throws every glance right and left. Gives many of her thoughts to herself and few of them to anybody else. She is a wild plant put in a hot house; feels cramped in Europe, and pushes her branches through the panes without the least heed of the frail plants that vegetate on all sides of her. Were she better understood, were she criticised less, she would be esteemed at her true value."

ALLEGED JOKES.

A western journal heads an article, "A Lunatic Escapes and Marries a Widow." Escaped? He got caught.

When you see two young lovers at opposite ends of the sofa you may be certain that a nearer of happiness is imminent.

"What is nice for bathing suits?" inquires a sea-side lady. When we were young a closely-cropped head and a sun-burned back constituted the chief features, but perhaps the style has changed since then.

They were at a dinner party, and he remarked that he supposed she was fond of ethnology. She said she was, but she was not very well, and the doctor had told her not to eat anything for desert but oranges.

That was a brilliant speech of a young society man who was "making conversation" with a young lady last week: "How fortunate it is," he said, "that before people go to the lunatic asylum they always lose their mind."

GRASS WIDOWS.

[From the New York Times.]

What a different meaning from the original one many words acquire by common use. Grass widow is one of these. It is generally employed now in this country to signify a woman whose husband has left her for incompatibility, or for more tangible cause, and who, though not divorced, has no intent to live with her again. Long ago a grass widow was an unmarried woman who has had a child, and sometimes the word is so applied here. In Europe it means simply a wife who is temporarily separated from her husband for any reason whatever, but without any disharmony or idea of reproach. In England a woman whose husband is in India or Australia is spoken of, without disrespect, as a grass widow; so is a French woman whose natural protector is in Algeria or the Isle de Bourbon, although in Great Britain the expression is also understood in the American sense. Grass widow is really a corruption of grace widow (the French say veuve par grace), a widow by grace or favor, and was especially used, in reference to the wives of the Crusaders who were left at home while their absurdly enthusiastic lieges fought against infidels in Palestine and staid away so long that their spouses sought consolation, and found it too readily. During the gold fever in California many men went to the Pacific coast at a venture, putting their families to board in the States, while they hunted for the precious metals or pursued whatever course circumstances determined. This the gold-seeker called putting his wife out to grass, in allusion to putting a horse out to grass when not wanted or unfitted to work. [illegible] side the water, any woman legally or virtually married, whose actual, ostensible, or nominal husband is absent. A wife temporarily separated from her husband, however fond of, or sympathetic with, one another they may be, is also a grass widow. But wives at Long Branch, Saratoga or Newport during the season, while their husbands are attending to business in Wall or William, or South street, would not feel flattered at such a designation, nor would the wives who spend so much time abroad, relinquishing their marital partners with little or no regret on either side. Grass widow has become so associated with opprobrium that it is not likely to be employed in its European import. The grass widow is, in some sort, the product of the metropolis. She abounds here. She has hundreds of representatives, all of whom claim to have husbands somewhere—several of them, often—though they cannot for their life tell where they are, nor do they, indeed, care to know.

PAPER CAR WHEELS.

The Paper World, in describing the method of manufacturing paper car wheels, says: "The paper is straw board of rather fine texture. It is received in the ordinary broad sheets, differing in no particular from those used for straw-board boxes or other similar work. These sheets, as they come from the paper mill, are square and must, first of all, be cut to a circular pattern. This is rapidly done on a large table with a knife that is guided by a radical arm that swings freely over the surface of the table from a pivot at the centre. A small disk is also cut from the centre of the sheet to allow for the iron hub. Being thus reduced to the required shape and dimensions, the paper must now be converted from a mass of loose sheets into a compact, dense body, capable of withstanding the tremendous crushing force to which it will be subjected in the wheels. This is accomplished in the following manner: Ten sheets are pasted together, one upon another, making a disk of about one-eighth of an inch thick. Enough of these disks having been prepared to fill a hydraulic press, they are subjected to a pressure of 1,800 pounds to the square inch. When removed, the disks are hung on a pole in a steam-heated loft and left six days to dry. Thicker disks are then made, each formed by pasting together two or three of those already finished. These are pressed and dried as before, and the process is continued until a block is built four inches thick and of about the specific gravity of lignum vitae. After each pasting and pressing six days are allowed for drying, and when the block is complete it is left in a drying room until thoroughly seasoned. The next operation is that of turning the paper block to fit the iron tires and hubs. This is done in lathes with as much accuracy, and exactly the same manner as if the material worked on was iron or wood. The circumference is turned to a perfect circle of the precise diameter required, a bed or recess is worked out for the web of the of the tire to rest in, and the surfaces are left hard and smooth and the edges sharply defined. The block is then painted and is ready for its place in the wheel."

AGRICULTURE AND LIVE STOCK.

From the North Pacific Rural Spirit.

Messrs. Imbrie, Freeman and Constable, of Washington county, inform the Rural Spirit that, in their opinion, that county will yield one-half more wheat this year than ever before, and that the quality will be superior.

Redmond & Smith have taken their three stallions—Kister, Rockwood and Duroc Prince—out to the White House track, to have the facility of training their horses on the half mile track out there.

During the recent state fair the merits and demerits of the Norman horse were talked so much that we concluded to make a little specialty of this subject. Our conclusions are that there are no such horse as a "Norman" horse, nor a "Norman-Percheron" horse. The whole story can be written down in one line. The animal in question should be known and called the "French Draft" horse, or the "French Farm" horse.

From all we can learn of the Pollard cattle of Scotland, they would be a most excellent breed to introduce into this country. They are all muleys, black in color, very hardy, living on the roughest lands, good milkers, and furnishing an article of beef unsurpassed by any breed. Their hair in winter is said to be very thick; and having no horns, it occurs to us that they would be an excellent breed of cattle for our wet winters and timbered lands. It is claimed also that they are furnishing the west with large numbers of the bulls of this breed, and they are so pronounced in their breeding that nearly all their progeny are muleys. This, in view of shipping is looked upon as a great advantage. Some Oregonian who may be induced to send for a few of these cattle will make a "ten strike," you mind!

"ORDER NO. 40."

Hancock's Reconstruction Record Ventilated.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The republican congressional committee has published Hancock's famous order No. 40 as a campaign document. It is accompanied by a brief history of Hancock's advent in Louisiana and Texas, with numerous extracts from the reports of General Sheridan, his predecessor in that department, and other high military authorities. These reports show a state of affairs to have existed which, to northern minds, seems almost incredible, yet which it is claimed, has been proved by subsequent events to be absolutely true. Unrepentant rebels were in the majority in all communities, with local tribunals and municipal offices in their hands. Laws passed under confederate rule for the oppression of unionists were executed and enforced by these tribunals, while the malignant hate of the defeated rebels towards the freedmen and unionists found the readiest means of exercise through the instrumentality of miscalled courts of justice. Gen. Sheridan acted vigorously, and had nearly trodden out the rebellion's spirit when President Johnson interfered. When Hancock came upon the stage, everything already accomplished in the direction of pacification and reconstruction was undone, and his general order No. 40 was openly interpreted to signify an intention on the part of the administration to countenance the restoration of the old rebel functionaries to full power and the deliverance of freedmen and unionists into their hands. The result is graphically illustrated by the story of a few of the terrible massacres which occurred at that time, as a direct result of the work of Hancock in his brief season of civil rule.

San Francisco Charters and Markets.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—French bark Montmorency 612 tons wheat to a direct continental port between Bordeaux and Hamburg, £1, 17s. 6d.

The stock of rice remaining on hand is variously estimated at from 30,000 to 40,000 mats, or about enough for one month's consumption. In this quantity there were not more than 4000 or 5000 mats of mixed. This fact has caused a marked advance in prices, which at the close on Saturday were from 20 to 35 cents per hundred pounds higher than at the close of the previous week. The ship Eleanor H. Moore is due from Hongkong and will doubtless bring a large quantity; but coming on a bare market, it is scarcely probable that this will unfavorably affect values. The steamer coming from China will not bring any rice, and the Oceanic, due about the 21st, will only bring a limited quantity, as the greater portion of her room was engaged in tea. The outlook therefore is highly favorable for maintenance of high prices.

A sudden advance in quicksilver is due to light production at the present time. But few of the mines can be profitably worked at prices that have been current for some time past, and a marked reduction in the output is expected this year. It is still almost impossible to give quotations at which purchases could be made, although it is highly probable that some could be obtained at 40c. Some holders ask 45c.

Bags at close steady, and it is reported that during the latter part of the week quite heavy purchases were made at combination figures.

Salmon closed dull but with no disposition manifested by packers to shade quotations.

NEW YORK FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

New York, Aug. 10.—Clipper freights remain very dull with no sign of improvement, although with only two leading vessels on berth. It is expected by agents that they will be able to get them off within ten days. The George F. Manson has cleared but will not finish for a day or two. This line will then be without a ship on berth and such freights as they might secure will of course go to other vessels.

Rates are still low and such is the competition between lines that there is no prospect of any advance. Tonnage still scarce, and available vessels are accepting short voyages, whereby they can make much more than by a voyage to San Francisco.

Markets are not very active, but prices generally are firmer.

Breadstuffs continue to decline under large arrivals of new wheat and very favorable weather throughout the West.

Provisions—Dull and nominal for pork.

Lard—Firmer.

Rio Coffee—Moderate demand, but very firm in tone.

Refined Sugars—Good demand and firm with upward tendency.

Hides—Quiet but firm.

Turpentine—Steady at 37@37½c.

Petroleum—In better demand for higher crude.

Whale and Sperm Oils—In good request; holders firm; sales at New Bedford, 400 bbls sperm at 90c, 300 [illegible] South Sea whale, private.

Wool—[illegible] and lower; Calif. [illegible]

Charters—Ship McLaurin, wheat to Liverpool, 56s; ship Blackhawk, merchandise, New York.

Barley—Firm at all prices.

Eggs—[illegible] quiet

Wool—Business anticipated—receipts going into warehouses; buyers do not develop any anxious mood; sellers show more disposition to let go; transactions confined to Eastern Oregon.

Hams—Eastern C. & c. choice to fancy not quite so firm, 15½c.

Salt and Sides unchanged.

Bags—Firm with a fair inquiry; quotations unchanged.

Salmon—Some movement is attempted, but with ill success; agents here refuse $1 10 on river.

Wheat—There is very little demand from exporters, at the same time prices are declining; demand is good from millers.

Oats—Demand is fair with an improved feeling.

Rice—China mixed firm with prices against buyers; quoted at $5 60.

Potatoes—Best 60@75c.

Gold [illegible] $1; silver [illegible] $1 [illegible].

NEW YORK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.

Wheat, weak and about quiet.

BEERBOHM

Swallowing POISON

Spurts of disgusting mucous from the nostrils or upon the tonsils, Watery Eyes, Snuffles, Buzzing in the Ears, Deafness, Crackling sensations in the Head, Intermittent Pains over the Eyes, Fœtid Breath, Nasal Twang, Scabs in the Nostrils, and Tickling in the Throat are

SIGNS of CATARRH.

No other such loathsome, treacherous and undermining malady curses mankind. One-fifth of our Children die of diseases generated by its Infectious Poison, and one fourth of living men and women drag out miserable existences from the same cause. While asleep, the impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs to poison every part of the system.

Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure absorbs the purulent virus and kills the seeds of poison in the farthest parts of the system. It will not only relieve, but certainly cure Catarrh at any stage. It is the only remedy which in our judgment, has ever yet really cured a case of Chronic Catarrh.

Cured! Cured! Cured! Cured!

G. G. PRESBURY, Prop. West End Hotel, Long Branch, Cured of 20 years Chronic Catarrh.
S. BENEDICT, JR., Jeweler, 697 Broadway, N. Y. (memb. of fam'y) Cured of Chronic Catarrh.
E. H. BROWN, 359 Canal St., N. Y., Cured of 11 years Chronic Catarrh.
J. D. MCDONALD, 710 Broadway, N. Y. Sister-in-Law) Cured of 40 years Chronic Catarrh.
Mrs. JOHN DOUGHTY, Fishkill, N. Y., Cured of 8 years Chronic Catarrh
Mrs. JACOB SWARTZ, JR., 200 Warren St., Jersey City, Cured of 18 years Chronic Catarrh.
A. B. THORN, 183 Montague St., Brooklyn, (self and son) Cured of Catarrh.
Rev. WM. ANDERSON, Fordham, N. Y., Cured of 20 years Chronic Catarrh.
MLLE. AIMEE, Opera Prima Donna, "I have received very great benefit from it."
A. MCKINNEY, R. R. Pres., 33 Broad St., N. Y.: "My family experienced immediate relief."
&c., &c., &c., &c., &c., &c.

Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is the most important medical discovery since vaccination. It is sold by all Druggists, or delivered by D. B. Dewey & Co., 46 Dey St., N. Y., at $1.50 a package. To clubs, six packages for $7.50. Dr. Wei De Meyer's Treatise is sent free to anybody.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast.

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost Manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for it.
